What are the Key Risks?

The value of shares in the Fund and income received from it can go down as well as up and investors may not get back the full amount invested.

Performance may also be affected by currency fluctuations. Currency fluctuations may affect the value of overseas investments.

The Fund invests mainly in REITs and other equity securities of the real estate sector. Such REITs and securities have historically been subject to significant price movements that may occur suddenly due to market or real estate-specific factors. As a result, the performance of the Fund can fluctuate considerably over time.

The Fund may distribute income gross of expenses. Whilst this might allow more income to be distributed, it may also have the effect of reducing capital.

Other significant risks include: currency risk, liquidity risk, derivatives risk.

For full details of all of the risks applicable to this Fund, please refer to the "Risk Considerations" section of the Fund in the current prospectus of Franklin Templeton Investment Funds.
